WANTED THEM TO SAVE SHIP.
LIGHT ON CLALLAM WRECK.
 (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)
 VICTORIA (B. C.) Jan. 25.—Chief Engineer S. E. Delaney of the lost steamer Clallam gave evidence before the coroner's inquest that the disaster to the steamer was due to the broken rudder, which had been broken at least three months. Had the rudder been in good condition, Capt. Roberts would have been able to get toward the wind, and the broken rudder would then have been brought in such a position that it could have been blocked. But the rudder, the second that had been fitted to the steamer, was in a notoriously bad condition.
 The flag was so black that it could not be seen from the deck, whether the union was up or down.

 Strickland, a mechanic employed at the Union Iron Works, was found lying dead on the floor of his room with the

FOLSON FOR JOCKEY WARD.
MUTILATED PUBLIC BUILDING.
 (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)
 OAKLAND, Jan. 25.—Richard Ward, once a clever jockey, was today sentenced to five years at Folsom for mutilating a public building. He kicked down the wall of a calaboose in which he was a prisoner. Ward was previously State Prison for killing a constable. He had been in much trouble recently.

NOW FREE, NOW PRISONER.
PARKER AGAIN IN BULL PEN.
 (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)
 DENVER, Jan. 25.—A special to the News from Cripple Creek says that the case of Sherman Parker was called in the Justice Court this afternoon, the charges being assault on Thomas Stewart for aiding Charles Campbell to elude the officers. After considerable delay, the announcement was made that there was no evidence against the prisoner. He was discharged. Parker was immediately rearrested by the military, without warrant, and taken to the bull pen.

Requisition for Diamond Robber.
 SACRAMENTO, Jan. 25.—The government today issued a requisition upon the Governor of Missouri for the return to San Francisco of James Walters, the bell boy wanted for the robbery of the Colonial Hotel, in which he secured much valuable jewelry and diamonds, about three weeks ago. Walters is in custody at Minneapolis. Nearly all the proceeds of the robbery have been recovered by the police of that city.

Army Post a Sure Thing.
 SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25.—A special to the Bulletin from Washington says that the Army Medical Board will report in favor of the Henry ranch in San Luis Obispo county for an army post. This ranch is about twenty miles from the Nacimiento ranch, which was previously recommended.

Washington Churches Against Smoot.
 BELLINGHAM (Wash.) Jan. 25.—In every one of the twenty-two churches in this city resolutions have been passed calling upon Senators Ankeny and Foster to resign. The resolutions were adopted by a large majority.
 The cruiser was cut by the propellers of the Empress and sunk, and the commander and a large number of her crew were drowned. The Board of Assessors held that the Empress was overloading the steamer, and consequently was blamable.

His Lordship, Sir H. S. Wilkinson,
 Chief Justice, found that the collision was brought about by the alteration of the course of the mail steamer at 11:55, so as to cross the course of the cruiser, and a failure thereafter to keep a proper lookout. The responsibility for this failure was on the officer of the watch on the bridge, on whom it was the more incumbent to keep a good lookout that he was hauling in his own vessel more closely to the course of the cruiser. His Lordship was satisfied that he did not keep a good lookout, and that the collision took place in consequence.

The Canadian Pacific Railroad has appealed the case.

GAVE DOPE TOOK DIAMONDS.
BELL BOYS ARE SUSPECTED.
 (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)
 SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25.—The Evening Post says that Mrs. M. C.
 Hang, wife of a prominent attorney of Pueblo, Colo., was drugged and robbed of valuable diamonds and two $100 bills, at her apartment Saturday night. Edward Miller, a bell boy, was arrested in San Jose as he was trying to pawn two of the diamonds. A warrant is out for the arrest of Archie Harris, but he has not been apprehended.

Mrs. Hang is still on the verge of nervous collapse. She says that some drug was administered to her in a glass of beer. She became drowsy and when she recovered, her diamonds and bills were gone. The jewelry consisted of diamond ear rings, a ladies' hunting-case, a pair of watch-chains, a pair of bracelets, three solitaire diamond rings and a pair of diamond cuff buttons.

BRIEF NEWS ITEMS FROM THE WORLD.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
HONGKONG, Jan. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Arrangements are being made between China and Japan at Peking, whereby China is raising 200,000 well-equipped troops to place at Japan's disposal. Troops are being raised in different provinces, each province guaranteeing equipment, pay and supplies. Southern Chinese are highly indignant over Russia's occupation of Mukden, which they regard as sacrilege.

RUSSIA'S HOSPITAL SHIPS.
 (BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
 CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It is said Russia has obtained the consent of the Porte to allow hospital ships en route for the East to pass through the Dardanelles, not permit this.

FORTIFYING KOREAN STRAITS.
 (BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
 LONDON, Jan. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Russia seeks to prevent further fortification by Japan of the Strait of Korea, and the Czar's insistence on the neutralization of the strait constitutes an added menace to peace.
 Japan's National Congress at Man-chow, according to the Russian view, constitutes a menace to the world's commerce, giving Japan control over the strait. Japan already has strongly fortified the island of Tsushima, in the middle of the strait, and this, with the proposed fortifications against which Russia now objects strenuously, would constitute a Gibraltar in the East.

 MADRID, Jan. 25.—[Exclusive in an automobile, the car fell and the girl was terribly injured about the head. She is not expected to recover.

 Many women in the audience fainted.
 The spectators became enraged, and smashed everything within reach.

Army Board Selects the Henry Ranch.

The present Secretary and Mr. Taft then Solicitor-General, met in the legal arena of the United States Supreme Court to discuss the Philippine problem.

But the argument made by the Solicitor-General excited his admiration, and when Secretary Root cast about for the best man for the delicate and difficult post of Governor of the Philippines, he chose Mr. Taft.

But the tenacity of his opinion, it is said one of the first acts of the new Governor on taking his place at Manila was to incorporate in the new navigation laws for the islands a provision used by the preceding Spanish government, which gave the prize money in the contention for which he had been defeated by Secretary Root.

member nomination of Collector Crum was not a new appointment, and that the Comptroller of the Currency would not object to the nomination of a collector of that salary when that matter came before him. He said that the original nomination shows that the President had not committed himself to any nomination, and that the nomination was an ordinary session and the present session of the Senate. Mr. Mitchell interposed so that the nominations sent in do not give him the names (meaning Collector Crum, George Wood, and others) that right to hold office. Mr. Tillman read a letter from Secretary of the Treasury Shaw reciting the nomination of Crum for collector of the Charleston (S. C.) collectorship and giving the version that the last

Mr. Slayden of Texas made an unsuccessful effort to eliminate from the bill an appropriation of $38,148 for the maintenance of the two battalions comprising the First Cavalry regiment of infantry. He had Secretary Root's statement to the committee read, in which he advocated the appropriation as a political, but not a military necessity.

Mr. Hull said the word "political" was not used in a party sense.

Mr. Slayden assented, but patriotically declared that he was in the force through civic advantages, rather than military services.

Mr. Hay of Virginia said that the Porto Ricans enlisted in the regiment were not in the force under the act of March 3, 1899, and that the appropriation would be gression, this government is bound to make overtures to Japan and to extend its good offices for the purpose of bringing about an amicable arrangement of the trouble. At a time when the position of every power in the world has a vital bearing on the delicately-balanced situation in the Orient, even such a mild movement as an extension of good offices might have great effect.

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—A fire broke out in the fire curtain of the Chicago Theater, which is the horror of the theater-going public. The fire was caused by a gas lamp in the theater, and the people in the building, who were susceptible to panic, were in a state of confusion.

MISSIONS IN KOREA SAFE.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Rev. Dr. George Heber Jones, who has been a missionary of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Korea since 1888, is here on a furlough. He says the missions are dominated by the best spirit of friendliness and cooperation. He believes church property and missionaries will be respected by both sides in event of war.

MANILA JAPS ADVISED.

MANILA, Jan. 25.—The Japanese consuls in the city have received advice from the home government that, in case of the outbreak of hostilities, they had better transfer their business over to the Americans.

RUSSIA AND UNCLE SAM.
NO EXPLANATION ASKED.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 25.—(By Atlantic Cable.) The exchange of communications between the Foreign Office, the members of the Committee of the Far East, Viceroy Alexieff and Baron de Rosen, the Russian Minister at Tokio, is still going on. There is no official indication of when a conclusion will be reached, but a diplomat who is close to such negotiations expresses the opinion that the Russian reply will be possibly ready this week.

An authoritative denial is given of the report that Russia contemplated requesting the United States to explain the attitude attributed to the United States.

The Korean Minister has received advice that his government will soon open the port of Wiju on the Yalu River, at the request of the United States.

CASSINI TALKS TO LOOMIS.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Count Cassini, the Russian Ambassador, had a long talk today with Mr. Loomis, acting Secretary of State, on the Far Eastern situation. The Ambassador's advice gave some hope of peace, though the phase of the question which received most attention was the contradictory statements which have appeared in certain newspapers regarding the attitude of this government.

The Russian government, of course, could not presume to question the previous assurances received from this country regarding its neutrality because of the recurrence of these statements has proved annoying.

The Russian government on the part of this government of any hitch in the reception of our consuls in Manchuria. The evidence of approval of the commercial treaty, which has been given, convinces the State Department that the consuls will receive every courtesy.

JAPAN'S MILITARY COUNCIL.
EMPEROR EXHORTS MINISTERS.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
TOKIO, Jan. 25.—(By Atlantic Cable.) The first meeting of the recently created supreme military council took place at the palace today. Subsequently the ministers had an audience with the Emperor, who exhorted them to cooperate in giving effect to the important financial programme which has been drawn up to deal with any contingency that might arise.

The new Korean Cabinet is friendly to the Japanese. It is stated officially that the recent press reports of disturbances in the Chosen Kingdom of Korea are exaggerated, but it is not denied that that country is far from tranquil.

MOVEMENTS IN CHINA.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
PEKING, Jan. 25.—The American government is arranging to dispatch the senior student interpreters here to Mukden, Port Dalny and Antung, to act as American representatives.

A small detachment of Russian cavalry has passed through Kiao Pong Tzu, on their way to Ichou. This party was received to China long ago.

Services were held here from Port Arthur are to the effect that a battalion of Russian troops is moving from that point toward the Korean frontier.

CONFIDENT OF OUTCOME.
LONDON, Jan. 25.—A dispatch to Reuters' Telegram Company from St. Petersburg says that while the Bourgeoisie are nervous owing to the uncertainty of the situation the progress of the negotiations inspires confidence among those who are well informed, and in such quarters there is a confident belief in a favorable issue.

The principal danger now, according to the press, is said to be confined to the disorderly elements in Korea. The latest news received here represents a great majority of the Koreans as sympathizing with Russia and hostile to Japan.

Other dispatches say that the Japanese are embarking on a large scale of operations in the Korean peninsula, and that they are endeavoring to hasten the conclusion of the negotiations.

The military authorities, however, answered that otherwise arrangements are making for a large number of ponies from the province of Korea for the Cossacks and mounted troops. There is a great blockade of the Port of Port Dalny.

MA'S FORWARD MOVE.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 25.—A dispatch from Port Arthur says that, according to a Chinese native paper, Gen. Ma has proceeded from Shan Hai Chi 14 province, in order to conduct operations on the border of Manchuria. In November Gen. Ma is reported as saying that in the event of war he would join his forces with those of Japan.

has lacked. Nothing approaching a war fever, however, is yet discernible.

The Chefoo correspondent of the Daily Mail says that Viceroy Alexieff's illness is graver than has been supposed, and that his absence has caused a vast accumulation of matters with which his subordinates are unable to cope. Military preparations, the correspondent adds, are only half completed.

Cabling from Tien-Tsin, the correspondent of the Standard says that 2000 Chinese who had been enlisted by the Russians deserted on being ordered to Port Arthur.

Thany, Petersburg correspondent of the Daily Telegraph cables that he has learned it was the erroneous idea of M. Besobraf, leader of the war party and a Secretary of State, that Japan would rather withdraw her demands than fight, which led to divided councils in the Russian government, and when war seemed unavoidable, he still persisted that a short and sharp struggle would end the matter. He even ventured to criticize the plan of campaign of War Minister Kuropatkin and the War Office, and proposed a plan of his own.

The Minister of War threatened to resign, according to the correspondent, and Count Lamsdorf and M. Witte, respectively Minister of Foreign Affairs and president of the Committee of Ministers, protested. Finally Grand Duke Nicholas, who had first brought M. Besobraf to prominence, became convinced war must be avoided, and he managed to get M. Besobraf away.

The Tokyo correspondent of the Times says the leading Japanese journals continue to be skeptical of Russia's pacific intentions, and argue that the patching-up of a hollow peace would be a prelude to future rivalry in armaments which would cause a grater strain than a war, whereas a fight today would be a preface to many years of peace.

MAKES BANK CLOSE DOORS.
Treasurer Goggin Alleged to Have Embezzled About Hundred Thousand from Trust Company.
NASHUA (N. H.) Jan. 25.—John P. Goggin, treasurer of the Nashua Trust Company, has been indicted today, charged with embezzling from the bank between $80,000 and $100,000. The company did not open its doors, and is in charge of the State Bank Commission pending a further hearing.

Goggin was held in $10,000 bonds for the grand jury. He made no statement, but said that his downfall was not due to speculation, but to his having given assistance from time to time to a friend. He is one of the prominent bank officials in New Hampshire, and came here from the West some years ago. In a short time he was made treasurer of the company. He is about 40 years of age and has a family. In banking circles the opinion is held that the real estate of Goggin is worth $100,000.

The directors of the Nashua Trust Company have been removed from the office of treasurer and Joseph L. Clough has been appointed to fill the vacancy temporarily.

Since 1890, four local banks have closed their doors, and banks in several neighboring towns have been forced to suspend chiefly through losses sustained in investments in the Western States. It is estimated that the directors of the Nashua Trust Company have lost fully $2,000,000 through the embarrassment of banking institutions.

FLASHES FROM THE WIRES.
Queen Helena of Italy held her yearly drawing-room for the presentation of those who are to be admitted to the court balls and receptions. Action taken by the Chicago City Council on the ordinance governing the theaters will, it is expected, allow the theaters to open in a short time, but it will be months before others are able to do business and two or three of them may never reopen.

FEATHERWEIGHT TRUNKS
Church, Brooklyn, has received a telegram containing the news of the death of a relative of the Chicago City Council on the ordinance governing the theaters will, it is expected, allow the theaters to open in a short time, but it will be months before others are able to do business and two or three of them may never reopen.

CHICAGO'S GAS LAW
KNOCKED OUT COLD.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) "Illegal" was the word stamped across the City Council's 75-cent gas ordinance by Judge Grosscup in the United States Circuit Court today, when he handed down his decision. The Darius O. Mills case and the decision of the court have caused the city to be in a state of confusion. The right to fix the rate of gas in Chicago lies in the Legislature, according to Judge Grosscup.

FIJI ISLANDS SWEEP BY FATAL HURRICANE.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
LONDON, Jan. 25.—(By Atlantic Cable.) Confirming the press dispatches from Melbourne last night, the Colonial Office has received an official dispatch as follows: "A severe hurricane swept over the Fiji Islands January 21 and 22. The damage to the neighborhood of Suva, the capital and chief port of the islands, was chiefly to the banana and other plantations and native houses. In fact the destruction at Levuka, on the east coast of the small island of Ovala, was very serious. Whole native villages were swept away, the bonded warehouse was destroyed and its valuable contents were seriously damaged. Several coasting steamers, a bark, several smaller craft and government buildings were destroyed. Only six lives have thus far been reported lost but more from the provisions has not yet arrived."

RESIDENT SOUGHT TO PREVENT A WAR.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) There is no doubt that the President did everything in his power to prevent war in the Far East, and all the influence of the government of the United States now possesses is being exerted for peace. These efforts to keep peace have been made as separate facts to every foreign office of the great nations of the world. They are not made collectively, as they are understood in their natural relations should at this juncture deem it advisable to make the formal announcement that it will not accept the "mediation of any foreign power." That declaration is known to refer to the United States.

WIFE VOMITED POISON.
ELORA (Iowa) Jan. 25.—In the case of E. S. Blydenburgh, on trial for the murder of his third wife, Mrs. Alice Harold, her sister today stated that on the day of the funeral she overheard Blydenburgh tell the sexton to be sure and stay near the grave until everything was all right and the grave completely filled up. Witness also stated that Blydenburgh said his wife vomited poison.

EXPEDITION GIVEN UP.
BERLIN, Jan. 25.—The German government has given up the plan to send a two-thirds vote of all delegates, but there is no party law requiring a two-thirds vote to nominate in a Democratic convention. It is merely present and tradition. The first national convention of a political party ever held in this country was the Democratic convention that met at Baltimore, May 21, 1848, and nominated Andrew Jackson for reelection as President.

WILL COLLECT DUES AS FORMERLY.
INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.) Jan. 25.—The United Mine Workers gave their time today to discussing proposed amendments to the constitution regarding organization. The convention decided to retain the present plan of collecting dues and not adopt the stamp system. Minor conditions in the constitution were considered. Makes Appeal for Funds.*

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The American Bible Association has issued the following appeal:

"The American Bible Society for nearly eighty-eight years has pursued its single aim of circulating the Bible without note or comment in this and all lands. For this purpose it has been concerned in securing translations of the Scriptures in nearly one hundred languages. It sustains a close relation to the Christian churches of the United States, as the ally and helper of their mission work at home and abroad, and as such deserves and receives their support.

"But in addition, the effect of its labors have been very marked upon our whole civilization. To have circulated, as it has done, 72,000,000 Bibles, Testaments or portions thereof, is to have powerfully contributed to the moral health of the world. The social fabric of modern States

EVENTS IN LOCA

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Will Sew for Orphans.

Tomorrow the ladies of the First Methodist Episcopal Church will sew all day at the Orphans' Home, corner of Yale and Alpine streets. Ladies are invited to join, with thimble and lunch.

Successful West.

At a meeting of the directors of the Columbia Savings Bank, held yesterday afternoon, E. S. Rowley, a well-known capitalist of this city was elected director and president, in place of A. P. West, deceased.

Seriously Ill.

The wife of William Young, Township Justice, is seriously ill at her home on the corner of Fourteenth and Santee streets. She has been suffering with a tumor growth for more than a year, but has been bedfast for only about two weeks. Late last night her condition was that of semi-consciousness, and her husband feared she would not live through the night.

Prohibitionists Coming.

Hon. Oliver Stewart, national chairman of the Prohibition party, with his wife, will arrive in Los Angeles today for a two week rest. It is not his purpose to engage in public work during this period, but the local prohibitionists are planning for a public reception to be tendered the visitors some time during the present week at one of the larger hotels.

Charged With Burglary.

Sidney Rasted, who was arrested on suspicion by Patrolman Lennon while trying to dispose of a number of tools at an East First street second-hand store, will be prosecuted for charges of burglary. Detective Steele learned that the tools had been stolen from E. L. Ross at No. 2000 Broadway, and the first time, and other tools stolen at the same time were recovered by the officers.

Forest Devastation.

Reports from investigators of the forestry department show that almost every one of the young trees planted last year, on neighboring mountains, are dead. Lack of rain is attributed as one cause, but experts also say that it is a proof that southern slopes on rocky hillsides will not support any vegetation beyond brush and various scrub woods.

Impulsive Butcher Aif.

Butcher Alf, the king of Happy Valley, has gone. One-eyed Annie and Dutch Lizzie mourn alone. It is said that Alf has started a saloon in one of the toughest parts of San Francisco, D. L. which his merry little hostelry in the valley is an overdone meeting of a Sunday-school. His arrival on the waterfront he has just celebrated by throwing a man out of a window. Alf was always so impulsive.

Italian Band Concerts.

The Italian Band will give an open-air concert at Charles Park, tomorrow and Thursday. Tomorrow night will inaugurate a series of special semi-weekly evening concerts at the Chutes Theater. A special program will be rendered, including a grand selection from Chaffinelli's new opera, "Chopin," the saxophone quartette, and a duet by Signori Decimo and Donatelli. Miss Lillian Scanlon will be the soloist of the occasion.

School Principals Named.

The Board of Education made the following assignments of principals last night to take effect February 8: Mary A. Lang, Jefferson-street school; Katherine Clark, Boyd-street school; Anna L. Witman, Bridge-street school; Harriet Hanson, Graceland-street school; M. Amella Fosbury, Twenty-fourth-street school; Leta A. Lodge, Stanton-avenue school; Addie J. Samuels, Solano-avenue school. The following teachers were transferred from the substitute to the regular list: Charlotte Getchell, Leola Barber and Roxane Stevens.

John Shand's Find.

Last Sunday, while City Teller Shand was showing one of the San José Chamber of Commerce visitors the beauties of Westlake Park, he found on a park bench a chateleine purse containing a check for $100, amounting for $85, a $10 gold piece and $1 in silver. Yesterday morning he saw the loss of the purse advertised in The Times. With this clue he soon found the owner, Mrs. Benier, who is staying at No. 435 South Hill street, and restored the wallet and its contents to her.

"Acres of Diamonds."

Dr. Russell H. Conwell, one of the eminent divines of this country, is to lecture in Simpson Auditorium this evening on "Acres of Diamonds" under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Methodist Church. As Miss Clara Morris remains ill and there is a strong probability that she will not reach the Coast this winter, the ladies have arranged for the Scottish entertainer, Miss Flora Donaldson of Glasgow and Mr. Gavin Spence of Edinburgh, to appear in an entertainment in Simpson Auditorium on Friday evening of this week. The tickets which were good for Miss Clara Morris will be accepted for this event.

BREVITIES.

Gold-filled eye-glasses and spectacles at $1.50, worth $2 and $4; warranted ten years. Eyes tested free. Graduate opticians in attendance. Prescription work at popular prices a specialty. Work guaranteed. Clark's Jewelry and Optical Store, 261 S. Spring.

Telephone your "Want" ads. to The Times. Special clerks are constantly in waiting at the other end of your phone to take your ad. Ring up any time of day or night. Sunset, Press 1. Home, Exchange 2.

Mark Guy Pearce, the celebrated English author and Methodist preacher of London, England, will lecture February 5 and 12 at Simpson Auditorium for the benefit of the University of Southern California.

There are undelivered telegrams at the office of the Western Union Telegraph Company for Mrs. A. T. Byrne, W. R. Ramsdell, W. H. Harlow, C. H. Albergo, Ben Fehyner, Mrs. L. M. Bailey, John A. Roden, C. L. Ingle, T. A. Rice, George Warner, John F. Parker, A. B. Burton, E. H. Kohlhaase, W. H. Guthridge, Harry Harmon, M. Belle Smith, Charles Swap.

DIED OF ALCOHOLISM.

Michael Sheehan, a driver in the employ of the brewery agency of Adolph & Baerwald, died at 1 o'clock this morning at the Receiving Hospital of delirium tremens after many hours of awful agony during which it was necessary to strap him to his bed and put leather muffs on his hands. He was 46 years of age, and came here eight years ago from Denver. He had no relatives in this part of the country. Sunday afternoon he fell unconscious on the sidewalk on South Los Angeles street and for a time it was thought he was dead, but he revived at the hospital only to die after twenty-four hours of agony. There was a pathetic incident in connection with his death. One of the trustees at the City Jail had been assigned to watch the dying man. This prisoner was told last night that if he did not cure within the next few hours he could sit away from him. "I believe I will watch him. It will be a lesson to me. I'll never drink again!" replied the prisoner.

USTIN PIPE ORGANS
Mechanical perfection has been reached in Austin Pipe Organs. They possess improvements impossible to duplicate. Even in the small organs the Austin is of greater volume, greater intensity and greater density than that emanating from an instrument of twice the size constructed upon ordinary lines. The material and workmanship employed in their production are the best the world affords. The motto adopted by the Austin Organ Company, "Scientia Artem Adjuvat" (Science Aids Art) is most appropriate. Ministers and church committees are earnestly invited to investigate the merits of the Austin.

RACE TRACK SENSATIONS.

Wagnerian Recital Scared the Betting Ring.

Poet Ernest Hogan Thrust Into Outer Darkness.

Vaudeville Artist and Wife Sue for Damages.

Ernest Hogan, the crepe-colored rag-time singer who wrote "All Coons Look Alike to Me" and "Go 'Way Back and Sit Down," was thrown out of Ascot Park yesterday by a Pinkerton detective.

The only thing that can possibly soothe his feelings is an enormous suit for damages. He retained a lawyer yesterday and will file his suit at once.

Brother Hogan proposes to demonstrate that all coons may look alike to him, but there is one more to be looked at when someone else is looking—that's Hogan.

To bunch him in with a common gambler colored sportin' man is a libel on the colored race.

The trouble was that Hogan "buted in" when the management was frantically trying to check the pandemonium that emerged from the mouthpiece of Hogan's traveling companion when a 15-to-1 shot came first down the stretch.

Hogan says the man was acting like a perfect gentleman; but the management declares he shook the windows in Vernon and that the horses all but turned around and fed back up the race course.

He is one of those naturally impulsive creatures. Chevis is his name. He edits a colored paper here, a sort of guide, philosopher and friend to the colored porters.

He was Hogan's host at the races yesterday. The song writer is playing the Orpheum circuit, but had a week on, which he decided to spend in Los Angeles. Chevis had the passes.

Hogan's wife went and Mrs. Chevis and some others.

Mistah Chevis has an eye for a race horse. He picked a nag, yclept Ocyrohe, to win the second race, although the odds were 15 to 1.

He watched them saddling up in the paddock and he began to have misgivings. The animal had a "Why Take Me from My Happy Home" sort of expression about the eyes.

Brother Chevis went back into the grand stand with a subdued and downcast eye himself. He had waged five plunks.

When the crowd about him jumped and yelled "They're off," he dared not raise his eyes.

He sat hunched up like a man some one is throwing bricks at, as the race horses went round the track. He was sitting just back of the press box and heard the form bookman say "In the stretch." He raised his trembling eyes.

Glory be, hallelujah!

In the lead was Ocyrohe humping down the track like a sacred coyote.

All of a sudden an unearthly and blood-curdling yell shook the grand stand. Eternal hope had taken a fresh grip in the breast of Mistah Hogan's side partner.

But that was only a little purring happy murmur. Brer Chevis leaned over and began to wax enthusiastic.

That was one race that will never be reported. In the San Francisco poolrooms, the pickers shivered and waited in vain inquiry.

"JACK" FOOLS ROAD HOUSES.

Detective Gets Evidence to Cork Demijohns.

Successful Raid on Resorts on the Fernando Road.

Five Arrests to be Made Today—Liked "Taylor."

There will be weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth today all along the San Fernando road from Los Angeles to West Glendale and further. Roost dispensers will be the principal mourners, but many pilgrims will also be sad, for traffic in the gurgling stuff that cheers must cease, and information has been secured which will result in criminal cases being made against at least five keepers of road houses, with probably several more to follow.

The flat has gone forth from the office of the District Attorney that violations of the law regarding the sale of liquors in Los Angeles county must shut down, and systematic efforts have been used to secure evidence to convict the lawbreakers.

Last night a party of detectives, accompanied by a Times reporter, visited the resorts along San Fernando road and secured evidence in five places.

WILL BE ARRESTED TODAY.

This morning the District Attorney will ask Judge Young to issue warrants for the arrest of the following on a charge of selling liquor in violation of the law:

D. SPILKER.

DAN HAZELWOOD.

A. CALDERA.

HERMAN KAUZ.

B. CAMILLO.

All of these conduct road houses and while some have restaurant licenses and are allowed to sell liquor in quantities of not less than one gallon, others have no licenses whatever, and it is claimed that all are guilty of keeping tippling houses.

JACK TAYLOR'S WORK.

All of the road-house keepers know "Jack Taylor" and all of them like him immensely. At least they did like him, but after reading this article they will undoubtedly conclude that they are victims of misplaced confidence.

For a week past "Jack Taylor" has been driving out each evening and stopping at the various roadside hostleries. He sometimes wears overalls and a jumper, for he told the keepers that he was working out that way, but he always had money and spent it liberally. That's why everybody thought Jack was a good fellow. No whisky was too good for Jack, and on one occasion when he took a female detective along with him, introducing her as his wife, the finest port, sherry and claret were set out for him.

All of this time "Jack Taylor" was simply gathering evidence and last night a final round-up was made. The road-house keepers had been shy at first, but they knew Jack now, and when he appeared at their places with other friends there was no trouble. In Spilker's place beer and whisky "foamers" were handed out, also red wine, while a $5 piece was tendered in payment and the change returned after deducting the price of three drinks.

In Caldera's place the old Italian waxed eloquent over the quality of his whisky. "No sells anything butta good whisky," he said, "paya two and half-gallon in beeg cety. See!" and he produced a statement from Hildebrandt, Pomeroy & Co., of 632 Front street, San Francisco, showing what he had paid for his whisky.

Caldera was proud of his whisky and made no secret of selling it openly to all comers.

A FOX YONE.

Hazelwood's place was the strictest of all. He would only admit one party at a time and several nights ago he refused "Jack Taylor," but last night two members of the party went in and bought samples of the cup that cheers without any trouble.

In Herman Kauz's place supper was served, but the obliging landlady handed out whisky, beer and wine without stint or question. "Jack Taylor" was a great favorite here and nothing was too good for members of the party.

Away out beyond Tropic, B. Camillo conducts the West Glendale Grocery and has a regular bar on one side which is curtained off from a restaurant. "Jack Taylor" and his friends were welcomed there and invited behind the bar, where they were regaled with beer and whisky and wine.

SCENE OF MURDERS.

For some time, complaints have been made at the District Attorney's office that tavern-keepers on the San Fernando road have been flagrantly violating the law, and evidence has been secured by the District Attorney for the purpose of stopping the custom. Several of the road houses have reputations that are not savory to say the least, and a number of murders are charged up against that locality.

His Work Ended.

"For a long while he was working hard to get a good job."

"Yes, but he's taking a well-deserved rest now."

"Gave up in despair, eh?"

"No; but he's got the job." (Philadelphia Press.)

TEMPERANCE IN GERMANY.

A General and Forceful Movement Now Under Way in the Direction of Abstinence.

An interesting communication concerning the growth of temperance sentiment in Germany from United States Consul Diederich at Bremen to Mrs. Mary H. Hunt of Boston has just been forwarded the latter by the State Department at Washington.

Referring to the results of Mrs. Hunt's presence at the International Anti-Alcohol Congress in Bremen last April, which she attended in response to the German request to President Roosevelt that she there represent the American Scientific Temperance Instruction movement, Consul Diederich sends her the following article from a Berlin paper which will be of interest to readers in this country. The article in reviewing a complete bibliography of recent German literature on the drink question lately issued, says:

"Considering the newness of the propaganda in the Fatherland the output is enormous."

"There is a total of 371 books printed in the German language dealing with the temperance question, written by 412 different authors, and practically all published since the year 1890, the greater portion of them since 1895."

"Besides this, there are now thirty-seven newspapers, magazines and annuals published in Germany devoted to the temperance question."

"The temperance reformation in Germany has had such a recent beginning and the supposed German repugnance to total abstinence is so well grounded it is really difficult to comprehend the full meaning of this vast array of literature in the German tongue."

"The evidence is clear that the people of Germany have taken up the alcohol question with an energy excelled by no other people or the face of the earth. Good Temperate lodges are multiplying every year. The Blue Cross has spread all over the Empire."

"The Imperial Health Office at Berlin is sending out elaborate literature against the use of alcohol as a beverage. Count Douglas, the brother-in-law of the Emperor, is one of the foremost temperance reformers in the country and, day after day, the Journal of the Imperial Parliament has contained pages of his arguments against drink. Leading lights in German universities are also leaders in the new reform."

"Plans are even being matured for a German Temperance exhibit at the coming St. Louis Exposition."

"The kindly personal interest taken in the scientific temperance propaganda of Mrs. Hunt by the German Emperor shows how the anxiety about drink has reached the upper strata of German society. What nation on earth can furnish a parallel of the late Bremen Congress when 1500 people sat for four days to discuss the drink peril. What a deep unrest it must be that causes nearly a thousand different books to be dumped into a single language on a single subject within twenty-five years. And who can measure the effect?"

"Germany has passed the first stage of the reform—that of moderation. Abstinence is now the general cry and with a decided squint toward legislation, both remedial and preventive. At the latest swift rate, the reform may have complete prohibition for its watchword in ten more years."

CATTLE DYING BY THOUSANDS.

Antelope Valley Herds May Be Annihilated.

Worst Food Famine in History of District.

Ruin Faces Stockmen Unless Rain Comes Soon.

Herds containing thousands of head of cattle in the Antelope Valley will be annihilated unless heavy rains come within a short time. Conditions in that section are more serious than they have been at any other time during the past sixteen years. Between 5000 and 6000 head of cattle in the northern part of Los Angeles county are slowly dying of hunger and thirst. Their condition is pitiable in the extreme. Not only are the cattle suffering torture, but the financial loss to cattlemen will be enormous unless the drought is soon broken by copious rains.

This is the story of distress brought by L. C. Stuckey of Lancaster, one of the largest stock raisers of the valley.

"I have lived in the Antelope Valley for sixteen years," said Mr. Stuckey yesterday, "but I have never seen such lamentable conditions as the present ones. My own herd has dwindled to about five hundred head and some of them are so weak they can scarcely walk. Other raisers are faring no better, and unless we have good rains in a very short time or devise some way to get the cattle out, our herds will be practically annihilated. The situation is simply heart-rending and at present we see no means of remedying it."

WORST YEAR EVER KNOWN.

"Antelope Valley under the most favorable conditions in none too good as far as water is concerned," continued Mr. Stuckey, "but this year is the worst in its history. The sagebrush and salt grass are completely dried up, leaving practically no nourishment for the animals. We have had no rain whatever since last March and I do not believe we have had over four inches of rainfall in the past five years. The surface water has disappeared and the artesian wells do not furnish enough to be of much benefit."

"The country is overstocked to begin with, but conditions in any other event would be nearly as bad. The valley appears as if it had been swept by pestilence. It also looks as if all the ranchers would be ruined."

MUST MOVE OR PERISH.

Asked as to what plan should be adopted looking toward relief, Mr. Stuckey said:

"I do not know what can be done, but if we could get a large percentage of the cattle moved out, the situation would be relieved. Cattle are dying off every day and some are in no condition to move."

It is impossible to market our cattle in their present condition and we know of no place to which we can move the herds. In the meantime we can only pray for rain in abundance."

CAUGHT IN THE NORTH.

San Francisco Detectives Capture Young Man Who is Badly Wanted.

Here for Grand Larceny.

Nathan Kleinmann, alias Clint, was arrested yesterday in San Francisco at the request of the police authorities of this city on a charge of grand larceny, and an officer left last night to bring him back for trial. The case against him is said to be positive.

Kleinmann was employed as a clerk in the jewelry and second-hand store of H. DeVoor, No. 223 East First street. He had come to Los Angeles penniless, and DeVoor took him in, fed and clothed him, and gave him work. On January 3 Kleinmann was left in charge of the store while the proprietor went to lunch. Taking advantage of the opportunity, he stole three gold watches, seven gold rings and a revolver. Leaving the store open without any person in charge he caught a north-bound train. The theft was discovered within an hour, and the detectives telegraphed all along the line of the road to officers to apprehend him. A Constable at Saugus saw him, but when he pursued him, the fugitive boarded a moving train and made his escape. He was seen in San Francisco last Friday by a man who knows him, and who notified the officers here upon his return to Los Angeles. The San Francisco authorities were given this information, and Kleinmann's arrest followed. DeVoor will vigorously prosecute him.

HANGED WITH A WIRE.

Body of Unknown Man Found in Clump of Trees Near Puente.

Evidently Case of Suicide.

The body of an unknown man was found by a tramp yesterday hanging by a piece of baling wire to a willow tree two miles south of Puente, in a clump of trees fringing a creek bed. The man had been dead several days, and there was nothing on his person which would give the slightest clue to his identity.

The discovery was made by a tramp who notified the authorities, and Coroner Trout went to the scene. In the man's pocket were found a number of shaves of old stock, but the name of the owner was left blank on the certificate. There were no other papers, and only 10 cents in money. His garb was that of a tramp, but no blankets nor other personal belongings usually carried by tramps could be found. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of suicide. The body will be buried near Puente at the expense of the county.

UNIVERSITY PLAN OPPOSED.

Educators Regard it With Much Disfavor.

Want to Raise Standard of State Normal.

Purely Professional Basis is Advocated.

The proposition to convert the Los Angeles State Normal School into a sub-university, to be discussed this morning at the semi-annual meeting of the Normal trustees, will meet with an opposition wholly unexpected from prominent educators of the city.

All admit that Dr. Lewis S. Thorpe's plan, put in operation, would be a questionable benefit to students aspiring to the possession of a university degree, but in its adoption they predict the demoralization of the school as a place of training for teachers. The plan is characterized as impractical in view of the fact that the broad scope of the first two years at the State University could not be approached by any possible adjustment of courses of study contemplated in Dr. Thorpe's plan.

Dr. Thorpe's idea is that from the big amount of money spent by the State in maintaining the Normal, the young people of this community are in receipt of a comparatively small return. With the adoption of the two-year university course the school, it is thought, would be "filled up" and students would be glad to avail themselves of the privilege of two years of university work without going from home.

"In its inception the Normal was intended as a strictly professional school," said a prominent educator yesterday, "and it should be conducted on those lines. The moment the university idea obtains the efficiency of the institution will be seriously impaired. The decrease in the number of students in attendance is no reflection upon the administration, but can, by a fair-minded observer, be traced to natural causes. The adoption of the high school basis has much to do with it. A Normal school should not be gauged by numbers but by its work. A more thorough academic preparation than is common I would insist upon, but this weakness is being met by the adoption of the high school graduation requirement. My experience has been that a majority of teachers fail through lack of control rather than from lack of knowledge. The old idea was to pound subjects into a pupil. The successful present-day teacher studies the pupil and by knowledge of the individual develops him at every point. Preparation for this efficient service can alone be made at an institution wholly devoted to normal work."

"Nothing can be gained from a Normal standpoint by adding a university course," said one of the foremost educators of the city yesterday. "In the first place, it is not practical. I doubt very much if the State would stand for it. The time of the Normal teachers would be taken with university subjects to the detriment of the real work of the institution. I see it is claimed by advocates of the plan that the desire is to make the Normal a preparatory school for those desirous of entering the State University. The idea is absurd. Preparatory courses at the normal the usual congestion at the larger institutions might be relieved. We have a first class Normal School, and if there is to be any change let it be for the better, to increase its efficiency and not to cripple the faculty by forcing a division of effort by conducting a 'half-and-half' accommodation school. The State needs more high school graduates upon whom teaching they want the privilege of a thoroughly equipped normal, and if they are bent upon 'completing their desire they will not ask who is president. The idea that pupils hesitate about entering the Los Angeles Normal because of the administration is ludicrous. The decrease in attendance, if there is any, is due to other causes. Let me give you a few figures. In the Los Angeles schools last year the first grade shows about 2600 entries. The fifth, 1200; the ninth, 600, and when the graduation year is reached the number is reduced to 45. Other schools record a proportionate showing. From this limited graduation the normalities are recruited. As this number increases the attendance at the Normal will increase. The fact is, young people, in these prosperous times, are finding more remunerative occupation along other lines."

"There is another reason for a falling off in the numbers matriculating at the Normal. A majority of those desiring to teach prefer the State University course, which, when completed, enables them to teach in any school."

His Finish.
"I have discovered the source of life!" The new professor, who had only been drawing a salary for three days in the great university, flourished in his hand a quart bottle of protoplasm as he spoke, standing upon the threshold of the president's office. That gentleman frowned.
"If that's the best you can do," he observed, "I'm afraid you'll lose your job."
"But, my dear sir," remonstrated the new professor, "is it nothing to discover the source of life?"
And the president smiled satirically as he replied:
"Absolutely nothing, sir, in these days. Why, only this year the source of life has been discovered four times, without attracting absolutely any attention at all from the papers. Young man, unless you can discover something new and startling enough to advertise this college in the proper manner, I warn you that your days are numbered."—(L.A.E.)

SHOPLIFTING IS BURGLARY.

SUPREME COURT RENDERS VERY IMPORTANT DECISION.

Any Thief Who Enters Business
House to Steal Goods Is Felony
Whether House Is Open for Business or Locked for the Night.

A decision which means much to the merchants throughout the State, and which insures their protection from shoplifters, was rendered a few days ago by the Supreme Court of California, which declared that shoplifters may be prosecuted on a charge of burglary and not for petty larceny, no matter what the value of the goods they may steal. Heretofore it has been customary to present these offenders before the police courts on charges of petty larceny and sentence them to a number of days in jail. It has been only in cases of confirmed thieves where prior convictions could be urged that such criminals have been prosecuted for felony and sent to the penitentiary. Now the peace officers will be able to prosecute them for felony in the first instance and all persons who may commit such crimes may expect such prosecutions.

In its decision the Supreme Court holds that any person who enters a house, room or store with intent to commit larceny is guilty of burglary, and it is expressly stated that it makes no difference whether the criminal enters with or without the consent of the owner or occupant. If a person enters a store during business hours with intent to steal a handkerchief it is burglary just the same for shoplifters under this new interpretation of the law are burglars.

The case in which this decision so important to merchants was made was appealed to the Supreme Court from Santa Rosa. Frank Brittain and J. P. Johnson, alias Thomas Hollister, entered a store owned by a man named Rosenberg. They asked to be shown some cheap suits, and when they left the store a suit of clothes was missing and they were arrested. The crime was fastened upon them without difficulty and they were charged with burglary instead of petty larceny.

They were promptly convicted on the felony charge and appealed the case to the highest court in the State. That court, in rendering its decision affirming the conviction, says that the evidence shows that the men entered the store for the purpose of committing larceny and they are therefore guilty of burglary just the same as if they had forced an entrance during the absence of the owner. The law in the case is quoted and clearly defined so that no lifter on the one hand and the authorities on the other cannot mistake the meaning of the decision.

When it is remembered that hardly a week passes but a shoplifter is arrested in this city, and sometimes as many as six arrests are recorded in one week, the importance of the decision to Los Angeles merchants may be appreciated. It will no longer be possible for merchants to cause the arrest of thieves and then refuse to prosecute them, as is frequently done. Alleged kleptomaniacs and others of their kind will not be shown any favors hereafter.
